

Headline: Jason Theron Announces His Debut EP Explode

Lead: Johannesburg – Artist Jason Theron is thrilled to announce the release of his debut EP Explode available everywhere on 24/04.

This is Jason's debut EP, with a mixture of original pop and EDM sounds as well as reinterpreted covers and hymns this makes for a perfect introduction to what is to come from this young emerging artist.

Jason is currently working on a 3 track Christmas EP which will be released in early November 2020.

Due for release later this month, a remix of his single Living Water produced by emerging South American DJ Moshe RV who has announced a fun Minecraft themed music video for the single.

Explode

This is just the beginning for me, I cannot wait to show this world what I am capable of and I hope that in doing so people's lives are touched through my music – Jason Theron.
